DECEMBER 2025

Snack and Paint: Hibiscus Spam with Alex Martinez

Tuesday, December 2, 2:00 PM

2nd Floor Community Room

Join us for a snack and paint with artist Alex Martinez. Paint a fun and funky combination inspired by a popular snack food and tropical flowers. Young children must be accompanied by an adult. Register for this event through our sign-up sheet in the Makerspace.

Elf Engineers and Snow Scientists

Thursday, December 11, 2:00 PM

2nd Floor Community Room

Get ready for frosty fun! Kids (ages 6-12) can design a “toy tower” to survive a winter blizzard and create a magical Snowstorm in a Jar. A hands-on holiday STEM adventure full of creativity and teamwork and discovery — while supplies last!

AMGEN Presents: Santa's Shaky Workshop:

The Science of Earthquakes

Saturday, December 13th, 10:00 AM

2nd Floor AMGEN Community Room

Come learn about earthquakes with Amgen scientists! Activities will include making an elf tower, experiencing an earthquake shake station, and building mini gingerbread houses (while supplies last!)

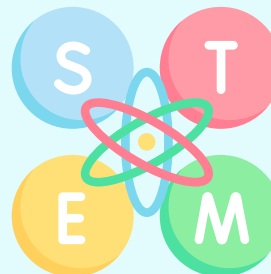

STEAM Career Panel

Saturday, December 13, 2:00PM

1st Floor City Council Chambers

Learn about careers in Science, Technology, Engineering, Art and Math from representatives of Genentech, California Academy of Sciences, and UC Davis. Each panelist will discuss their career journey and answer questions from the audience.

Recommended for middle/high school students and older.

Screen Printing with Buppydogs

Thursday, December 18, 3:30 PM

2nd Floor Makerspace

Join us for the Buppydogs Screenprinting Workshop! Learn how to screenprint an original 3"x3" design by artist Alicia Cardell (they/them). Bring your own fabric — smoother surfaces work best! We'll help you choose your print placement the day of.
